“Genesis” Greek for “beginning”.

The Beginning of God’s Story |
Genesis reveals God as Creator and shows where His plan of redemption begins.

Author: Moses |
Genesis is traditionally attributed to Moses, whom Jesus affirmed as writing about Him. (John 5:46)

Date: 15th–13th Century BC |
Written during Israel’s wilderness years, Genesis shapes a redeemed people’s identity.

Audience: The People of Israel |
Given to a nation rescued from Egypt, Genesis provides Israel’s origin and calling.

Purpose: Creation, Fall, and Promise |
Genesis explains humanity’s brokenness and God’s promise to bring blessing through His chosen people.
